IR Activities

Chori is working to strengthen dialogue with shareholders and investors. The executive officer in charge of information handling oversees matters related to investor relations (IR) and public relations, cooperates with the Corporate Management Department and relevant departments, and communicates information to shareholders and investors. If a request is made for an interview with an executive officer other than those in charge of matters related to IR and public relations (including outside directors), the Company will consider responding to the request within reasonable limits based on its details. The relevant internal departments proactively cooperate to achieve constructive dialogues with shareholders and investors through the preparation of disclosure materials and the sharing of important information while conducting their business activities. The opinions gathered through these dialogues are reported to the relevant committees as necessary and fed back to management executives and the relevant departments, ensuring that such information is shared and utilized.

Fiscal 2024 Activities

Financial results briefings for institutional investors and analysts: Twice / Company briefings for individual investors: Once / Individual IR meetings: 11 times

Results of Dialogues -

- We would like to see regional sales figures included in the financial results briefing materials.
- We would like to see exchange rate forecasts disclosed when formulating management plans.
- It is difficult to understand which markets will become key drivers of the Company's future growth, the size of these markets, and the extent of potential growth.
